

MIAX Options Exchange Wins 2016 Institutional Trading Award for Best Infrastructure/Technology Initiative

Princeton, NJ – February 25, 2016 – MIAX Options Exchange (MIAX) announced today that it has been awarded the 2016 Wall Street Letter Trading Award for “Best Infrastructure/Technology Initiative by an Exchange/ATS” by a panel of independent judges. The Wall Street Letter Institutional Trading Awards recognize excellence among providers to the institutional trading industry for innovation and achievement over the past year. This marks the second year in a row that MIAX has been recognized by the Wall Street Letter for its infrastructure/technology achievements.

“We are honored to be named a Wall Street Letter Institutional Trading Award winner for the second year in a row,” said Frank Ziegler, Senior Vice President – Systems Infrastructure of MIAX. “We would like to thank the Wall Street Letter judges for again recognizing MIAX for our contributions to the trading industry through our innovation and achievements in exchange applications, infrastructure and various technology initiatives.”

Douglas M. Schafer, Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer of MIAX, said, “This award reflects the high level of skill of our entire technology team and the dedication our team members have to providing our member firms with the best exchange technology and trading experience available in the industry. Being the recipient of this award in 2015 and now in 2016 is a testament to our team’s ability to undertake and implement technology initiatives that enable MIAX to remain ahead of the ever-changing trading industry. We are excited to be leveraging this same award winning technology as we build out our second Equity Options exchange, MIAX PEARL.”

“The efforts and hard work of the entire MIAX technology team were instrumental in our infrastructure again being recognized for its excellence by the Wall Street Letter,” said Thomas P. Gallagher, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of MIAX, “and we would like to acknowledge the team’s continued operational excellence in the development and running of our exchange systems.”
